

Pastoral Position

Fulltime or Bivocational

Nucla, Colorado

Nucla First Baptist Church

Nucla, Colorado is a rural community in the scenic South Western part of Colorado located one and half to two hours from Moab, Grand Junction, Montrose, and Cortez. The area is a great place for outdoor activities of all kinds and the community is largely made up of outdoor enthusiasts who live simple quiet lives. The community has an average population of about 700-800 people. The average Sunday morning attendance at Nucla First Baptist Church is around 45 and the congregation has a good cross sectional representation of the community.

Our purpose as a church is to:

Be a dynamic, spiritual organism, empowered by the Holy Spirit to share Christ with as many people as possible in our church, community and the world,

Be a worshiping fellowship, experiencing an awareness of God, recognizing His person, and responding to His leadership,

Experience an increasingly meaningful fellowship with God and fellow believers,

Help people experience a growing knowledge of God and man,

Be a church that ministers unselfishly to persons in the community and the world in Jesus's name,

Be a church whose purpose is to be Christ-like in our daily living by emphasizing total commitment of life, personality and possessions to the Lordship of Christ.

Nucla First Baptist Church's vision is to see every man, woman and child in Nucla and the surrounding area come to know Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Through loving relationships, honesty and sound Biblical teaching, Nucla First Baptist Church will make disciples, baptize and teach every man, woman and child to follow the commands of Jesus. We seek the Pastor God has called to equip the membership of the church to continue and strengthen the efforts of this vision and purpose.
